ORDER:

In the reference 2nd read above, the Head of the Department, Animal Husbandry Department, Hyderabad, has reported that in order to finalize the private partner to establish Incubation Centres for Entrepreneurship development and provide extension services in livestock service in all districts of Andhra Pradesh in PPP mode, M/s ARDCONS was hired by the Department as Consultant. M/s ARDCONS has developed a document connected to RFP from PPP partner for evaluation of the proposals. The document was examined by the department keeping in view the experience gained from Fodder Development Project, and finalized. The sum and substance of the RFP is to identify the Private Partner which has got the ability to establish and operate the incubation centres for entrepreneurship development and to provide extension services to the livestock owners with an offer to the Private to provide accommodation in the departmental buildings and also to provide the extension network of the department (MPDEAs) to promote entrepreneurship development and also to provide extension services to the stake holders. The HOD, AH Department has requested the Government to approve the RFP Document.

2. Government after careful consideration of the circumstances stated by the Head of the Department, Animal Husbandry Department hereby approved the RFP document prepared by the M/S ARDCONS.

3. The Head of the Department, AH Department, Hyderabad is therefore requested to take necessary further action accordingly.
